

The fifth Lawrence, was a 3370-ton Charles F. Adams guided-missile destroyer built at Camden, New Jersey. On 27 October 1958 the keel was laid down by New York Shipbuilding Corp. Lawrence was officially launched 27 February 1960.